Create, Taste, Experience

Written by Michelle Beahm and Sara N. Miller/North Kitsap Herald

Downtown Poulsbo has emerged as an arts district. Several venues enable you to discover your talent, too. “Painting is like a universal, fun thing,” Dancing Brush employee Maddie Dayley said. “Even if you’re not good at it, it’s still fun to do.” Growing up, Dayley visited Dancing Brush, and still owns pottery she painted there. . . ## Chip card technology and your small business

Written by Kitsap Business Journal

U.S. credit card companies are making the transition from magnetic stripe technology to cards with chips. Chip cards are payment cards that have an embedded chip, offering increased security when your customers use the chip to pay in store. Chip cards are based on a global card payment standard called EMV, which stands for. . . continue reading

Uber arrives in Kitsap

Written by Josh Farley/Kitsap Sun

Dawne Kieser’s new part-time job could take her anywhere from Bainbridge Island to Olalla for a fare. The Bremerton resident is among the first drivers in Kitsap County for Uber, the popular ride-sourcing company, in which users can hail a vehicle with the touch of a smartphone. The growing service, along with others like it, is taking root in. . . continue reading
