Starbucks, car wash approved in Poulsbo

Written by Kitsap Sun

Kitsap is in line for yet another new Starbucks store. The Poulsbo planning department recently approved an 8,500-square-foot retail building and 2,700-square-foot car wash on Olhava Way, across from Walmart. A Starbucks store with drive-thru will occupy about 2,000-square feet of retail building, according to a 10-year lease agreement recorded with the county last week. Starbucks already has a store . . . continue reading

And leave your goats at home

Written by Michelle Beahm/North Kitsap Herald

If you find yourself crossing Lindvig Bridge come October, you might want to make sure you have a few coins. Trolls are moving in, and you don’t want to be caught without the proper toll. In keeping with Scandinavian legend, artist James mayo will paint a mural on the bridge near Fish Park depicting bridge trolls peeking out windows continue reading
