$8.22 Million Buys Puget Sound Development Site

Written by Marcus & Millichap

Marcus & Millichap (NYSE: MMI), a leading commercial real estate investment services firm with offices throughout the United States and Canada, announced the sale of a 52-acre commercial master-planned development site in Poulsbo, Washington. The site sold . . . continue reading

Salad-to-go shop expanding to Silverdale

Written by Kitsap Peninsula Business Journal

Barely seven months after opening in Poulsbo, owners of a salad-to-go shop are planning a second location in Silverdale. Greens On Your Way founder Jenn Fredericksen . . . applies the coffee stand model to fresh-made salads, allowing drivers to grab packaged greens on the go. The shop encourages customers to pre-order their salads online, further streamlining sales . . . continue reading

Miniature horses becoming the new therapy animal

Written by Jenna Hanchard/King 5 News

Miniature horses are becoming the new therapy pet. There are only a handful of miniature horses in Washington State. One little horse named Diesel is making an impact on patients at Harrison Medical Center in Kitsap County. “He would rather be wrapped around you than anywhere else in the world,” said Eileen Watland, who owns Diesel and a handful of other miniature horses on her property in Poulsbo. . . Introducing Marnie Holt Swenson

Written by Donna Lee Anderson/North Kitsap Herald

I went to the first author event presentation Sept. 8 at Kitsap Publishing, 1450 NW Finn Hill Road, Poulsbo. Marnie Holt Swenson presented and read from her book, “Migratory Moment.” It’s a book of poems and she says it is written from the perspective of a very young child. . . continue reading

Owners release the Kraken in Poulsbo

Written by Tad Sooter/Kitsap Sun

Poulsbo’s new nautical-themed waterfront pub is the brainchild of three business partners from America’s heartland. Co-owners James Concon, John Mackowski and Frank Zoboroski of West Allis, Wisconsin, opened The Brass Kraken Pub in the spring in a building built over a pier overlooking the marina. The trio already ran a Milwaukee-area tavern . . . continue reading
