Office of Mayor Rebecca Erickson

PROCLAMATION

- WHEREAS, each year worldwide, there are more than 300,000 new childhood cancer diagnoses, equal to about every 3 minutes a family will hear the words, 'Your child has cancer'; and
- WHEREAS, although the five-year survival rate for childhood cancers has reached 80 percent, nearly 2,000 American children under the age of nineteen still die each year from cancer, making it the leading killer of children by disease; and
- WHEREAS, those that do survive will face at least one chronic health condition later on in life – not limited, but including – heart, liver, lung damage, infertility, secondary cancers and growth deficits; and
- WHEREAS, the causes of childhood cancer are largely unknown and more studies are needed to understand which treatments work best for children; and
- WHEREAS, cancer treatment for children often must differ from traditional adult treatments to take into account children's developmental needs and other factors; and
- WHEREAS, in the last 20 years, only four new drugs have been developed specifically to treat children with cancer; and
- WHEREAS, children including Layla Beckstrand are among the hundreds of children being treated for cancer in Washington State; and
- WHEREAS, Poulsbo is a caring community state that supports children and families;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rebecca Erickson, Mayor of the City of Poulsbo, Washington, do hereby proclaim September 2019, as in the City of Poulsbo and encourage all citizens to join me in recognizing this important initiative.

CHILDHOOD CANCER AWARENESS MONTH

Dated this 23rd day of July, 2019.

Rebecca Erickson, Mayor
