A lone male subject inferred he had a weapon and demanded cash from the teller, then left the bank. No one was hurt during the incident. While enroute, officers were updated with a location in a residential neighborhood approximately a mile from the bank where the suspect(s) may be located. Officers canvassed this area and determined the suspect had a car and driven away. Some of money was recovered at this location.

The vehicle of interest was identified as an older black vehicle, similar to a Honda Fit. Police agencies in Kitsap County were advised to be on the lookout for this vehicle. Witnesses also provided information regarding a possible suspect running through the area prior to law enforcement arrival.
