

City of Poulsbo

Office of Mayor Rebecca Erickson

PROCLAMATION

- WHEREAS, women and girls often face interlocking and compounding social barriers such as racism, sexism, and gender-based violence, which impact their ability to access full lives; and
- WHEREAS, violence against women impacts the lives of countless women and their families across the United States, with one in four women experiencing domestic violence and more than three women murdered each day by their current or former partner in communities across the country; and
- WHEREAS, every 90 seconds, another American is sexually assaulted, and, out of every 100 cases of rape, only 57 lead to arrest, 11 are referred to prosecutors, and seven lead to a felony conviction; and
- WHEREAS, financial abuse is experienced in up to 99% of domestic violence cases and occurs across all socio-economic, educational, racial and ethnic groups; and
- WHEREAS, immigrant women, women of color, women with disabilities, and LGBTQ communities face heightened risks of violence and greater barriers to legal remedies and supportive services due to factors such as limited English proficiency and language barriers, fear of deportation, limited access to higher education and job resources, higher risks of poverty and limited resources for access to support and affordable childcare; and
- WHEREAS, one of every four homeless women in homeless because of violence committed against her, and over 92% of homeless mothers have experienced severe physical and/or sexual abuse during their lifetime; and
- WHEREAS, the community of Poulsbo will work to end the epidemic of gender-based violence and support families;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rebecca Erickson, Mayor of the City of Poulsbo, Washington, do hereby proclaim the third week of October as the annual observance of YWCA Week Without Violence.

Dated this 3 day of Oct, 2022.

Rebecca Erickson, Mayor
